WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (EIN)

As we were processing your form 2290 for tax period 062003, we found that your form didn't have a valid employer identification number (EIN). Our records show no EIN assigned to this business. Since an EIN is required by law, we assigned you EIN 30-0116316. Please keep this notice for your records.

Use your name and EIN exactly as shown above on all federal tax forms, payments, and related correspondence. If you use any variation in your name or EIN it may cause a delay in processing, incorrect information in your account, or cause you to be assigned more than one EIN.

Every taxpayer must figure taxable income on the basis of an annual accounting period, called a tax year. For trusts, your tax year must generally be a calendar year, unless you are a charitable trust or are exempt from tax under the law. For partnerships, your tax year must conform with either the tax year of the majority partners, the tax year of the principal owners, or a calendar year, in that order, unless you establish a business purpose for using a different tax year. A personal service corporation must use a calendar year as its tax year, unless you establish a business purpose for using a different tax year. For further information, see Publication 538 (Accounting Periods and Methods), available at most IRS offices.

We've enclosed a Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number (EIN), for you to complete so your account record will be complete. Please return the form with the bottom part of this notice within 15 days. We've enclosed an envelope for your convenience.

If you already have an EIN, return the bottom part of this notice to us. Write in the exact name and EIN shown on the notice you received assigning you that EIN.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Keep this part for your records.
